Transfer of Civil Cases from the Harbor Justice Center, Newport Beach to the Laguna Hills Courthouse Announced by the Superior Court

Laguna Hills, California –The Superior Court of California, County of Orange, no longer will file and hear civil matters at the Harbor Justice Center-Newport Beach Facility. Effective April 1, 2010, civil cases previously heard at Newport Beach will be transferred to the Superior Court's justice center in Laguna Hills.

"Moving civil cases to Laguna Hills allows the Court to consolidate resources and use limited available resources more efficiently," said Superior Court Chief Executive Officer Alan Carlson.

The court facility in Laguna Hills, at 23141 Moulton Parkway, has four courtrooms that handle civil, small claims, and traffic proceedings.
